THE SANCTIFIED BAND.

The county courthouse of Accomac was filled again yesterday with a crowd of people eager to see and hear the final proceedings in the trial of the Sanctified Band of Chincoteague Island. This was the third day of the trial. Five new witnesses were examined for the defense, but no new facts were developed. It was the same dreary and disgusting old story of the two and two discrime of these cranky sanctification-They had all married contrary to God's law, and when they became sanc-tified they discovered that they could not study and understand the Scriptures with their wives. Husbands and wives agreed to put each other away, and be guided by the spirit to select fellow workers with whom they could study the Scriptures with more understand the Scriptures with more understand to take them I felt better! I continued taking them and I am now in better health than for many years. standing and pleasure. This is the famous two and two doctrine of Lynch and his followers. When all the wit-nesses for the defense had been heard, Commonwealth's Attorney Fletcher in troduced several witnesses in rebuttal, and succeeded in bringing out some damaging facts against the saints. The court then took a recess for dinner.

When the court reassembled Mr.
Fletcher opened the case for the commonwealth in a short but vigorous speech. Mr. Edgar J. Spady, commonwealth's attorney for Northampton county, made a powerful plea for the defeuse. Mr. Fletcher closed the argument for the prosecution in a strong and telling speech, in which he hand-led the Sanctificationists with ungloved hands. He made a powerful appeal to the jury to stamp out this pestiferous gang, this colony of Delaware cranks and imposters, whose teachings tend to undermine the structure of society and destroy the foundations and the

and destroy the foundations and the sanctity of the home.

The case was given to the jury at five o'clock yesterday evening. The jury retired, and, after being out about one hour, returned a verdiet declaring Joseph B. Lynch, Wilham J. Chandler and Sarah E. Collins guilty as charged in the indictment, and fixed their penalties as follows: Joseph B. Lynch, eight months in the county jail and $250 fine; William J. Chandler, six months in the county jail and $150 fine; Sarah E. Collins, four months in jail and $150 fine. John Collins, the other defendant, was acquitted, the jury being of the opinion that he was weak-minded and not responsible for the acts of the band.

of the band. When the verdict was read it was re ceived with stolid indifference by Lynch, Chandler and Sarah Collins. John Collins put his arm around his convict-ed wife and wept. She has been Lynch's fellow worker, and is deaconess of the band. Mr. Spady, counsel for the defense, moved to set the ver dict aside as being contrary to the law and the evidence. Judge Gillet prompt-ly overruled the motion, and Mr. Spady gave notice that he would like a bill of exceptions to the order of the court overruling his motion to quash the indictment.

Lynch and Chandler were, in default of bail, committed to jail, and Sarah Collins was recognized in a bond of $600 to appear in court this morning. Lynch's wife, whom he has put away. and several other women, accompanied him to jail, and expressed their great joy at the opportunity now offered the saint of suffering martyrdom for their faith. Lynch was heard to say as he entered his cell that he gloried in be-

The verdict meets with universal approval at Tasley, and it is hoped that the conviction of the ringleaders of the band will have the effect of crushing the dectrines of these Delaware immigrants, who have so long disturbed the peace of Chincoteange Island and brought undeserved reproach on that section of the

They have been camping about a mile from the Accounac court house on Folly creek. where they have their boats and supplies. Yes-terday they held religious exercises, which were witnessed by hundreds of people from were witnessed by nandreds of people from the surrounding country. They sang, prayed and shouted, and wound up by going around and saluting one another with a rousing hug and a holy kiss. There were many women among them, and not a few babier, Yes-terday the members of the band were much dejected at the result of the trial.

W. A. McGuire, a well-known citizen of McKay, Ohio, is of the opinion that there is nothing as good for child-ren troubled with colds or croup as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He has used it in his family for several years with the best results, and always keeps a bottle of it in the house. After having la grippe he was himself troubled with a severe cough.
